NEWPORT

ROUTE

NEWPORT

M4 SUPER 6.

Located on the M4 between J26 and J25, which is dubbed 'the most congested stretch of inner-city motorway outside the M25 in London'. The site benefits from high dwell times and 600,000 vehicles pass the site weekly!

Sitting in an elevated position facing both carriageways, the premium, portrait screen is ideal for reaching audiences as they exit and enter the Brynglas Tunnels.

Both Cardiff and Bristol airports are within an hour's drive of Newport, meaning this key route in Wales will reach a diverse audience including commuters in rush hour and tourists travelling to the airports. Allowing this site to reach 595,344 people weekly.

M4 NEWPORT D48.

Our landscape D48 in Newport is located near the eastern entrance to the Brynglas Tunnels. Together with our portrait mega 6, these two sites cover all traffic passing through this extremely congested piece of road.

This site is seen by westbound traffic with over half a million vehicles travelling past each week. The estimated weekly reach for this site is 500,00 people.

FRIARS WALK.

Newport is located just 90 minutes from London by rail, twelve miles from Cardiff. With a population of 159,600 (2021 Census), Newport is the third-largest and fastest growing authority with city status in Wales.

Friars Walk is Newport's major shopping and entertainment hub. The centre is home to, and in close proximity to, restaurants such as TGI Fridays, Las Iguanas and the Drago Lounge and retail shops like Pandora, River Island, Boots and Primark. The centre is also only a short walk to the newly developed Newport Market.

Network Features

- Retail and entertainment hub for Newport city centre.
- Footfall of 200,000 per week.
- Network of three D6s.
